Supervisors still need meeting place

In essence we are again making a suggestion to the Board of Supervisors that we think is in order.

As things now stand, the supervisors who are the most important political figures in the county, have no reasonable place to hold a meeting. About four years ago, the supervisors said that they would do something about this matter but so far they have not. Our specific recommendation is that the supervisors decembe space now given to the county superintendent of education and that the superintenis an engineer, but the formula is so simple that anyone can under-the drug did not work fully. When Bill Ryon picted the cat up it came alive and scratched and bit her on the hands and arms. Finally the cat was bound and taken to the bus station. The next day Cast called Ryan in desperation and said: What happened. That cat arrived, but it is not our

Also absent were two officials of Meridian, explaining their city manager form of government. And the chairman of the Jaycees committee explained the proposed salaries would be $16,200, a saving of $6,600 from the present $22,800. There was no mention ment. that the Jaycees and voters were responsible for the increase of salaries from $14,400 to the present $22,800 and the $3 million bond issue for 35 years. Regardless of what form of government we change to, money and more money would confront any officials. To solve the money problem would necessitate an increase of advalorem and sales taxes, a bond issue or federal aid.

I sincerely hope that all concerned would exert all their well-meaning efforts into one common cause - to solve the present situation of our city. TERRELI PERKINS Bay St. Louis.

These began in 1953 and now, 14 years later, are still in pro-

While Eisenhower, a Republican with a friendly press and a reputation as a great soldier, was able to get away with the Korean truce, LBJ knows that he, as a Democrat, could not. Monopoly newspapers

One of the most important legal decisions affecting newspapers is expected soon in Los Angeles against the Los Angeles Times. U.S. District Judge Warren Ferguson is expected to hand down a decision requiring the Times to divest itself of the San Bernardino Sun.

This will set new guidelines for the increasing trend toward newspaper monopoly.

Many big newspapers are buying up smaller papers, such as the Chicago Tribune's purchase of the Orlando, Fla., Sentinel and the Philadelphia Bulletin's purchase of the Santa Barbara, Calif., News-Press. This type of acquisition probably will not be prosecuted by the Justice Department. However, the San Bernardino Sun is located at the back door of the Los Angeles Times, within the Time's own circulation area, which means the purchase eliminated competition and tended to create a monopoly. It is believed likely that Judge Ferguson will so rule, and require that the Sun be sold by the Times.

Top political romance of the year is between Vice President Humphrey, a foundar of the Farmer Labor Party, and various business executives. Humphrey, who has a long record of sponsoring liberal

Humphrey credits Ford, General Motors, Fairchild Aviation, Ceneral Dynamics and Aerojet with going out of their way to set new plants in depressed areas and creating summer work. Farm Bureau battle

Rop. Josoph Rosnick, D-N.Y., may not realize it, but he's doing a service to tampaying industry in his probe of the nontompaying American Farm Bureau. He's now unearthed the facts that the Farm Bureau is investing $3 million in the Pizziz chapping confor in Birmingham, Ala., and had previously bounds a $10 million shopping conter in Birmingham. Roonick argues that farmers must sell at the highest possible price; shopping centers need to sell at the lowest possible price; do how can the Farm Bureau represent farmers without a conflict of interest? Though Resnick's investigation has brought frowns and consure from other congressmen who bow to the Farm Bureau. it's brought backing from businessmen throughout the nation who have to compute with tax-exempt co-ops.

Rocks roll under fast Biloxi boots

St. Stanislaus fell victim to a nation-wide epidemic of upsetitis that swept the country's college and professional fixeball teams last weekend and extended into the prep school.

The Pookachaws, filling a two-game wiming streak, had done everything expected of them this year and you could have getten 1 , maybe 12, peints if y u wanted to bet against them Friday but they succurited to Notre Dame of Biloxi by an unbellevable 39-7 score : Biloxi Municipal Stadium Fris day night, it was Notre Dame's first victory of the season having lest their spener t. Applications will be accepted unit1 Friday, Sept. 29, by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service for positions in the Border Patrol. Next written exam is Nov. 16. Information may be secured from the Gulfport and Biloxi Postoffices or any Immigration Service office.

Salaries for these uniformed officers start at $6,451 per year, with an automatic raise to $7,303 after successful completion of the first year. A bonus of 15 percent is added to compensate for the irregular duty hours involved.

The Border Patrol's job is to prevent the illegal entry across the land and water boundaries of aliens who try to circumvent the protective requirements of our Immigration laws. That this is a formidable task is proven by the bick that over 80,000 such aliens were caught hast year by the Patrol.

Owner Boulah is omight a thing of the past to moniton fusi how gratoful overyons is that the violent lady burricans hit a show other than ours. Towars have our deep sympathy, and we'd of source preferred that the big storm had blown itself harmleadly away miles from any land, as there are still too many grim romindors of Botsy of '65, and oven a few scars remain from the bilow of 47, for anyone the order to test up to another disastor wooling place. After recent deluges, 29-30-inch rains such as those droughing the Lone Star State would have just about washod us of the map. If anymore tropical disturbances crop up, wa'll dodicate this small rhymo to thom.

Hurricano, hurricano, go away, Discolvo, got lost, who rover you stray. Construction destruction has laid us so low, The last thing we need is another big blow! So much for that, and on to news of the day.

Gala opening in Waveland

Merchasts naw bank in Waveland opened formally at 9 a.m. Friday and a hugo crowd was on hand to offer congratulations and evon botter, many had money in their hot little hands. The wolcoming committee included Billy Breland and pretty wife Nolsen, Honry Monti's equally pretty wife Carol, Guy Billups and Doe Handlon were very much in evidence, of course, and Jo Con and Elica-Leavoau, who both always look as if they had just stopped out of the pages of a fashion magazine, were levely coreages. Cheryl (Mrs. Larry Breland assisted in serving from the beautifully appointed and flower bedecked table, and we couldn't possibly begin to name those in attendance, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Salvant of Sears Avenue were lucky winners of the portable to given away at the end of the day.

Even 20 years later

Hate to keep mentioning hurricanes, but Inez (Mrs. Charles) Bouis was most surprised when Mattie (Mrs. D.W.) North called her on Tuesday, Sept. 19, and wished her a very happy birthday. She asked how on earth Mattie remembered the date after these many years since their graduation from high school, Mattie reminded her that when Inez was 16 she was to have had a big party, but no one got to wear new dresses purchased for the occasion as that was the date the '47 hurricane struck.

And our Angie (Mrs. Jake) Morreale, has had a very mild adventure. On one of the hotter days last week she decided a dip in her pool to cool off. Apparently it wasn't as warm as she thought and the following day she was complaining about all sorts of back pains. Her long-time friend Helen (Mrs. Will) Bordages rather tactlessly reminded her that she wasn't quite as young as she used to be, and one may learn to expect such little aches after any unaccustomed exercise. We will not print

Enthusiasm over the upcoming charity ball sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary, Petitioning, has made it necessary for these eager workers to find a larger ballroom for the event. The committee met Thursday and were going to check into possibility of obtaining the National Guard Armory for their first,

Farm group adopts five resolutions

The statewide adoption of a compulsory stock law that will require cattle owners to keep animals fenced was recommended Sept. 12 by the Hancock County Farm Bureau in one of five resolutions passed by that group meeting in Hancock North Central School.

Other items receiving endorsement were the retention of the milk commission, the requirement for increased effort in marketing of farm produce, the proposed budget of the extention and experimental station and a greater determination to have more pieces of farm machinery display the slow moving vehicle emblem before road travel is undertaken.
